

Table of Contents

Foreword

Acknowledgements

About the Editors

About the Authors

Introduction: “When Mercy Seasons Justice”

—Edward C. Monahan & James J. Clark

PART 1: DISCERNING

Chapter 1 Mitigation Matters

—John H. Blume & Russell Stetler

Chapter 2 Competency of Counsel: Mitigation and National Standards of Practice

—Peter A. Joy & Rodney J. Uphoff

Chapter 3 The Law and Practice of Voir Dire of Capital Jurors: Ensuring Jurors Are Merciful

—Edward C. Monahan & Lorinda Meier Youngcourt

Chapter 4 Setting the Stage and Listening to What Jurors Have to Tell Us About Mitigation

—Marla Sandys, Elizabeth S. Vartkessian, Heather Pruss, & Sara M. Walsh

Chapter 5 Thinking About the Brain: What Is the Meaning of Neuroscience Knowledge for Capital Mitigation?

—Valerie Hardcastle

PART 2: TRANSLATING TO PRACTICE

Chapter 6 Creating and Leading the Mitigation Team

—James J. Clark & Edward C. Monahan

Chapter 7 Developing Case Theories: Processes and Methods

—Robert Walker

- Chapter 8 Mitigation Practice: Turning ‘Defendants’ into Persons
—*Robert Walker and James J. Clark, Suzanne Hooper,
Stephen Tripodi, Sean Kennedy & Edward C. Monahan*
- Chapter 9 Successful Relationship With a Capital Client:
The Paramount Responsibility of the Lawyer
—Margaret O'Donnell
- Chapter 10 Investigation and Discovery Strategies for Capital
Sentencing
—Emily A. Hughes
- Chapter 11 Integrating Experts into the Case: A Step
Wise Process
—Edward C. Monahan & James J. Clark
- Chapter 12 Telling the Client’s Story: Developing a Consistent Theme for Life Imprisonment Without Possibility of Parole
—Stephen B. Bright
- Chapter 13 Special Challenges in Capital Trial Mitigation:
Reframing to Communicate the Essence of Your Client
—Sean Kennedy
- Chapter 14 Communicating a Client’s Mitigation in the Court of Public Opinion: A Comment on “No Comment”
—Edward C. Monahan
- Conclusion Resiliently Practicing Hope
—James J. Clark & Edward C. Monahan

Appendix A

1. Capital Case Review Form
2. Facilitator Guide for Case Review
3. Questions and Questioning
4. Mitigation timeline
5. Sample social history

Appendix B

Appendix C

Table of Cases

Index